Please Note:

1. This brief Index is intended for those who wish to have their LMS Journal Issues 5-9 bound into one volume, and it may be downloaded for such purpose.

It is intended to produce a similar Index for each successive group of five issues.

2. A more detailed and extensive index of the wide variety of material published in LMS Journal, Issues 5-9, is available on the LMS Society web-site www.lmsociety.org.uk, and this may be downloaded for non-commercial use only.

Indexing of material published in LMS Journal Issues from No. 10 onwards, will be added to the existing detailed Index, thus providing one progressively complete Index for all issues of the LMS Journal as the series progresses. This too may be downloaded for non-commercial purposes only.
